

Copyright Policy

The library provides copiers, printers, and digital content for customer's use. It is the customer's responsibility to comply with copyright and fair uses laws, including recent court rulings when reproducing library content and materials. The library staff is not liable for the acts of individual customers using library materials or equipment.